HOUSEWARMING.

Saturday night there was a housewarming and dinner at the new No.
 22 engine house at Thirty-seventh and Broadway that was enjoyed by the residents of that section, heads of the fire department and a number of invited guests. The new house, which is not surpassed by any in the city, was given a thorough inspection, Capt. Joe Hack, Lieut. John Davenport, Dick Tallon, Joe Attinger and Pat Byron acting as guides.
 When the visitors again assembled on the main floor they were seated at a long and bounteous table, with Alderman B. J. Campbell, Jr., and Deputy Assessor Brennan acting as masters of ceremonies, ably assisted by members of the new company.
 When justice had been done the excellent menu, which consisted of roast and dressing, baked ham and the delicacies of the season, talks were made in which the fire fighters were commended for their watchful and valiant services. Besides Chief Tim Lehan there were seated at the festive board Charles Barker, Secretary of the department, and Assistant Chiefs Carroll and Sheehan, Capt. Frank Bundschuh, Capt. Willenburg, Capt. Hickman, Park Commissioner Ben Brumleve, Hunter Burke and others prominent in business circles. The affair was one that will not soon be forgotten by either the firemen or their friends.

SANDMANN SELECTED.

Leo J. Sandmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Sandmann, of this city, now a student at the Kentucky State University, has been appointed director of the commencement week festivities by the faculty and alumnae committees.
 Heretofore these festivities have been under the charge and direction of the faculty and alumnae, but recognizing Sandmann's proven ability in the management and direction of amateur and other productions, the full management of the exercises for the week have been put under his charge.

DR. EDELEN HURT.

Wednesday morning Dr. Charles A. Edelen was bruised and hurt, but luckily escaped serious injury. The Sixth district auto patrol, in charge of Chaffeur John Carraro, ran into the automobile of Dr. Edelen at Sixth and Oak streets when Carraro attempted to round the corner and turn east into Oak. Dr. Edelen was in his machine, which was standing near the corner with the brakes on, and according to his statement the impact threw his auto twenty-two feet.

ST. JOHN'S EUCHE.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St.
 John's church will entertain with euchre and lotto next Tuesday evening at Trinity Council club house, Baxter and Morton avenues, and have secured many handsome prizes, in addition to many choice and appetizing cakes, which will be disposed of during the evening. The committee of young ladies in charge are Misses Mamie Hennessey, Sodality Prefect, Katherine H. Driscoll, Mamie Fallon and Eva Walter.

REAL LITERARY TREAT.

The Literary Club of the Knights of Columbus will hold their regular meeting on Friday evening, May 15, at their club house, 816 Fourth avenue. At this meeting the Bard of the Ohio Valley, Attorney Thomas Walsh, will have a paper on Shakespeare's play, "King Lear." The friends and members of the club are looking forward to this meeting with considerable pleasure from the fact that the interpretation will be in such able hands.

FAIRFIELD.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized with nuptial mass in St.
 Michael's church at Fairfield on Tuesday morning, when Miss Mary Josephine Greenwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Greenwell, became the bride of Lawrence Rapier Coombe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father William Pike and was witnessed by many friends of the contracting parties.

CATHOLIC TRIBUTE.

We pay a tribute of our respect to the memory of the late Bishop Scarborough, the Episcopal Bishop of Southern New Jersey. He was a gentleman in the highest sense of the term. Simple in his habits, kindly in his relations with others, earnest in his work as he saw it, with a silent contempt for all intolerance, he lived to a ripe old age loved by his own people and respected by all. In these days, when divorce is rampant in the land, he is said to the credit of Bishop Scarborough that he without wavering maintained the indissolubility of the marriage bond.

NEAR CENTURY MARK.

The Society of the Propagation of the Faith was founded in the year 1822. It is an international association for the assistance by prayers and alms of Catholic missionary priests, brothers and nuns engaged in preaching the gospel in heathen and non-Catholic countries. In the year 1840 Pope Gregory XVI. placed the society in the rank of universal Catholic institutions, and on March 25, 1904, Pius X. recommended it to the charity of all the faithful, praising its work, confirming its privileges and raising the rank of its patron, St. Francis Xavier, to a higher rite.

JUST THE ONE DOSE.

Just the one dose of Socialism was enough for Milwaukee. Four years ago the promise of the Socialist leaders turned the heads of the unthinking people, with the result that the city government became entirely Socialist. It is all over now. At the last election the last vestige of Socialism was cleaned out. One trial usually is enough.

FONTAINE PARK EUCHE.

A euchre and lotto for the benefit of St. Columba's church building fund will be given at Fontaine Park, in the large dining hall, on Tuesday afternoon and evening, May 5, and tickets are good for either euchre, supper or refreshments.

HUSSANE VS. CAZEAU.

Farmer Burns' protege, Yussif Hussane, the Turkish wrestler, who defeated Dr. Roller here recently in a most impressive manner, will meet Raymond Cazeau, the French champion, next Monday evening at the Armory. A rattling good bout is promised, as the Frenchman comes here with the reputation of being an aggressive opponent, and if he uses this style against Hussane the spectators are sure of a run for their money, as the Turk has proven himself a slouch at that style of wrestling. Cazeau will outweigh the Turk about thirty pounds.

MAY GET RED HAT.

According to Rome press dispatches it is rumored that the Pope at the next consistory, in addition to creating Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, a Cardinal, will bestow the red hat on the Most Rev. Thomas J. Carr, Archbishop of Melbourne. Mgr. Bruchesi denies any knowledge of his promotion and the Vatican withholds all information until the date of the consistory is announced.

GIVES STATUES.

A Protestant woman has presented two magnificent statues of adoring angels to the Catholic church in South Boulder, Cal. In making the gift to the pastor she asked him to withhold her name.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Pleated fabrics are much used in the present fashions.
 For ordinary tailored suits pleated skirts are most ubiquitous.
 The basque will make no inroads on existing fashions till fall.
 The cape coat bids fair to be popular in the coming summer.
 Ribbon is used more and more.
 Women like ribbon, so this news is welcome.

This season the blouse makes the tailored suit and the sash makes the modish frock.
 There are some attractive net and lace blouses that make use of accordion plaits.
 Flounced skirts are attracting attention. One that is really very effective is made of magenta and black taffeta.

Checks have not given their place entirely to plaids. There are many suits made of checked cloth in odd combinations.
 The prettiest girde effects are those of ruffles. Paris reports that the cape mantle has achieved an instant and astonishing success.
 Embroidery still plays an important part in the new clothes. Chiffon is embroidered in coarse flows, loosely sewed, with decidedly good results.

HOLY LIFE ENDS.

Funeral services over the remains of the Rev. Mother Mary Florence, who died at the Sacred Heart Academy, were held Monday morning in the chapel of the Ursuline Convent at Shelby and Chestnut, attended by the members of that community. Before becoming a nun Mother Florence was Miss Mary Florence Meder and was the daughter of Andrew Meder. She was born November 14, 1842, and entered the Ursuline novitiate, then in its infancy in Louisville, November 20, 1861, and took the veil November 26, 1863. She then took up the work of teaching in the Ursuline Academy, remaining there until 1891, when she was made Mother Superior of St. Joseph's Academy, near Owensboro, where she remained five years, returning to Louisville to take charge of St. Joseph's Orphanage. In 1899 Mother Florence was made Mother Superior of St. Peter and Paul's parochial school in Cumberland, Md. She remained there until 1902, when she retired on account of ill health and returned to Louisville. She was seventy-two years old and is survived by a brother, Joseph Meder.

FOR THE MEN.

The mission at St. Joseph's church on East Washington street next week will be for the men. This week was for the women, and the Rev.
 Father Theobald and Rev. Father Larbes are highly gratified over the results. Masses with instruction and sermon will be held every morning at 5:15 and 8:30 o'clock, and in the evening at 7:30 there will be rosary, benediction and English sermon.
 The papal blessing, to which is attached a plenary indulgence, will be granted at the close of the mission.

ANNOUNCE MAY FESTIVAL.

St. Francis, of Assisi parish, is arranging a delightful May festival, to take place on the 5th and 6th of next month. Lotto games will be played each afternoon and euchre both nights, when many handsome prizes are awaiting the happy winners. The admission will be twenty-five cents at the door. A bounteous supper will be served from 5 o'clock by the ladies of the parish. A large gathering is expected for the games, which will begin at 2 and 7:30 o'clock.

SOCIAL CLUB HOME NIGHT.

The Hibernian Social Club of Division 3 will celebrate Hibernian home night at the Norman Theater on Wednesday night, May 6. Manager Wentzell has generously donated the entire proceeds of the night to the home building fund of Division 3. This promises to be an excellent entertainment and should attract large audiences. The programme will include high class vaudeville and some really good Irish motion pictures.

CONVALESCENT.

Sister Bernadine, Mother Superior of the Presentation Academy, is now convalescent at St. Joseph's Infirmity, and her pupils will rejoice to know that she expects to be soon able to return to them. Sister Bernadine has been seriously ill of pneumonia for three weeks, but a week ago she was pronounced out of danger and is now showing decided improvement.

NEARING COMPLETION.

The improvements on St. Leo's church, of Highland Park, are nearly finished and it is expected that the dedication will be held in the next two months. The new additions will give the church twice the capacity it had before the damage by fire.

BOWLING GREEN WEDDING.

Miss Nora E. Ryan and Thomas J.
 Osborne, well known young people of Bowling Green, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Father Thomas J. Hayes, pastor of St. Joseph's church. The attendants were Miss Fay M. Smith and Matthew A. Ryan, niece and brother of the bride. Following the ceremony the bridal party were given a reception by Mrs. Frank P.
 Smith at her home on Church street.

THOROUGH AMERICAN.

Cardinal Falconio does not regard himself as an Italian Cardinal. He is an American through and through. He loves America, takes pride in his United States citizenship. Every American who goes to Rome calls upon him, and all receive a cordial greeting.

TRUE TO LIFE.

From Dublin comes word that the Irish exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition will be a perfect reproduction of "Irish life, Irish architecture and art, Irish scenery and atmosphere." One of the largest concessions at the exhibition, its scheme will include reproductions of King John's Castle at Limerick, the Drogheda Gate, the Lakes of Killarney and the Giant's Causeway.
 The resources of Ireland are to be fully illustrated by the industrial exhibits, and none of the caricatures or other objectionable features which have characterized so-called "Irish Villages" in the United States and Great Britain will be tolerated.

THOMAS MOORE.

The St. Patrick Society of Brooklyn will celebrate the 135th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Moore, the national poet of Ireland, with exercises in Prospect Park on May 28. Attorney General Carmody will deliver the address.

CAN'T HURT.

A kind hearted Protestant mistress strove valiantly for years to protect her Catholic maid from shafts of conversation directed against the Catholic church. The lady went abroad and came back a Catholic—a brilliant one, a resolute one, a woman who snarled at the Catholic church. One morning she was so perturbed at the contents of a letter that her maid noticed her agitation and ventured to speak to her. Blushing and shaking her
